

The MarketsSTEADY STRENGTH DOMINATES MARKET

By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.
New York, May 14.—The market closed strong today. Steady strength dominated today's dealings from beginning to end. Final prices showed gains of 1 to 2 points. Atchison, 36 1-4.

Reading, 165 1-8.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, May 14.—Opinions from a high authority that Hessian fly is no longer prevalent now than is the case every year, tended today to make the wheat market ease off. Prices opened unchanged to 1-10 lower and declined moderately all around before there was a reaction.

The close was nervous, 4¢ to 5¢ net higher.

Bearish cables and fine weather carried down corn. Larger shipments from Argentina this week were predicted. Quotations started 1-8¢ to 1-10¢ lower and sagged a trifle more but then began to recover.

The close was strong, 4¢ to 5¢ above last night.

Date held steady. There were rumors that some Canadian shipments were being bought back by the sellers.

Packers appeared to have taken the bull side in provisions. First transactions were a shade to 5¢ higher and additional gains followed.
